STOP AND THINK

Some of us come to Mass and try not to get involved. We hang back for many reasons: fear we will be pressured into long-term commitments, or we will be asked to do what we have no aptitude for. Reluctant volunteers may be generous in other ways, through the weekly collection or donations to good causes. Are you hesitant to volunteer? What are your God-given abilities? Are you a leader, a team player, or a behind-the-scenes worker? Are you sick, homebound, or a frequent traveler? You can pray more. There is something only you can do for your parish! Are you a ministry leader? Do you communicate to parishioners the value of what you do? Are you welcoming and appreciative to new people? If you are a volunteer, do you share your enthusiasm with other parishioners and invite them to join you? Our parish survives if only a few are committed, but it thrives if everyone is included. ## FORGIVENESS

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: "Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?"

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As St. Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

For us Americans on the tenth anniversary of September 11, 2001, forgiveness still does not come easily. Yet Jesus' parable in today's Gospel reminds us of God's compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

Living Stewardship Now

Have you committed your abilities, your time, and your financial resources to your parish for God and the Church? Is your involvement a true reflection of your gratitude to God? Do you need to give more, or give differently?

There are many kinds of alms the giving of which helps us to obtain pardon for our sins; but none is greater than that by which we forgive from our heart a sin that someone has committed against us.

September 2011

Dear Father,

As you know, through the many years of their existence, our Catholic schools and religious education programs have played a very important role in the formation of children in their Catholic faith and in the formation of character. As with most institutions, our schools struggle each year with rising costs and increasing demands. In addition to tuition the schools have depended on the generosity of our Catholic faithful for support and encouragement.

I am writing to inform you of the annual Seton Fund Collection which is scheduled for September 17 and 18. I ask you to first express my gratitude to your parishioners for their significant support in the past and to encourage their support of this year's collection. Without their consistent support many worthy boys and girls would not be able to enjoy the benefits of a good Catholic education.

I trust in your help in bringing the good news of our Catholic schools and religious education programs to all in our Catholic community and urge their support of these endeavors with their generosity.

With every best wish, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Reverend Monsignor Luke Hunt
Delegate to the Apostolic Administrator
Most Reverend Thomas Wenski
