THE ROAD TAKEN

Week after week, we are offered a choice to declare to others and to our God whom we belong to—the small god of money and possessions, or the great God whom Jesus called Abba (Daddy or Papa in Aramaic). Some of us drop into the basket what we think is good enough, or what we will never miss, or whatever is in our pocket. How about a different approach? For every financial blessing first give thanks, whether for a paycheck, an allowance, investment interest, bonus, or even a lottery win. Choose a portion and share it with others: half to the Church, and half to good cause you favor. In gratitude for God's overwhelming love, we give these "first fruits" rather than what's left over after we've done what we want. Modern research shows that people who give generously tend to live happier and longer lives. So become a grateful giver and a true steward of God's constant blessings.

Living Stewardship Now

Did you know that the Vatican has a yearly operating budget less than half the budget of a major university? God's work—in the parish, the diocese, and around the world—depends on us. Is your giving generous, or the least you can spare?

During the week of October 17-21, Father Tom will attend a priests' retreat, so Communion Services will be celebrated by Deacon Matt each day during the week. The weekday Masses will resume on Tuesday, October 25. Thank you for your understanding.

IN GOD ALONE

Isaiah speaks to us today of Cyrus, King of Persia, anointed by the Lord. God calls Cyrus by name and leads him in service to the Israelites. In this passage we hear that it is the Lord who gives Cyrus his title, who arms him against his enemies, and who opens doors and unbars gates before him. And God does all of this so that the people will know that "I am the LORD," and that "there is none besides me" (Isaiah 45:6).

Paul opens his letter with essentially the same notion—that in God alone we find our grace and peace. Paul also gives thanks to God on our behalf, calling to mind our work of faith, hope, and love. And in the familiar Gospel reading, Jesus tells the Pharisees to give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

God's Goodness

Let us throw ourselves into the ocean of God's goodness, where every failing will be cancelled and anxiety turned into love. —St. Paul of the Cross

Please Update Your Contact Information!

Call the office 837-0357 or email admin@rcc-destin.org if you have had any changes in your contact information or family members, or come in to register if you're new! We'd love to meet you!

St. Vincent de Paul Society's assistance toll free number is 888-229-6582. Anyone in need of short term help should leave their name, contact information and a brief description of their situation. A St. Vincent de Paul member will return the call within 24 hours.

ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

Next Sunday, Pope Benedict XVI calls every Catholic in the world to celebrate our vocation to be missionary. It's World Mission Sunday!

As Catholics around the world — here at home and in the Missions — gather at the Eucharist around the table of the Lord, we are to pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work. We pray for those awaiting the "Good News" of our Lord's great love for us and for the missionaries who offer the poor and suffering the light of Christ. And we are to offer financial help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for more than 1,150 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

Power of Prayer & Strength in Numbers.

A new ministry is starting- The Electronic Prayer Chain! We'll have Strength in Numbers reaching many of our parishioners electronically through an email Prayer Chain. This will enable those who want to be part of this ministry to lift up their prayer for those in need, and, because it's electronic, be able to stay connected wherever you are.

Please contact Jan Anderson at akjananderson@gmail.com for more information or to be a part of this ministry.

Prayer requests should be emailed to akjananderson@gmail.com or call 907-727-5849. The Power of Prayer will bring us all closer together!

Scripture, after all, takes food seriously. Eating food together is a bonding experience, so it is no surprise that when Moses went up to the mountain to be with God in Exodus 24, the people of Israel beheld God's glory. And then they had supper. They ate and they drank, and I bet someone brought some soup along. Breaking bread, and even slurping soup, is part of our faith. When members of our Church community become ill and are hospitalized, we pray for them. We also would like to offer them something else to help them get back on their feet. Soup. On the day that one of our parishioners returns or is returning from the hospital, we will deliver one quart of soup for each family member living in the house. Please contact Penny Fleming, 850-424-6194 or the Church Office 850-837-0357.

PREPARING FOR THE NEW TRANSLATION OF THE MASS

What is a Roman Missal?

On the First Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011, Catholic parishes in the United States will begin praying the texts of the Mass using a new English translation of The Roman Missal. The Roman Missal contains what the Church refers to as the "proper" antiphons for entrance and Communion time (in the United States, with the approval of our bishops, we commonly substitute hymns and songs for these "proper" antiphons). The Missal also contains prayers such as the Sign of the Cross and the greetings used at Mass. The opening prayer or Collect, the prayer over the bread and wine at the preparation of the gifts, and the Prayer after Communion are all found in the Missal, as are the different Eucharistic Prayers that are used at Mass and the blessings at the end of the liturgy. The Missal also contains all of the parts of the Mass that the people say or sing, such as the "I confess," the Gloria, the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Lamb of God, and our other responses. Some of these prayers are changed with the new translation; others remain the same. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.
